

Measuring Instrument for bicycle child seat according to EN 14344

The basis of this measuring instrument is a flat plate which defines the horizontal reference of the seat.
 The components can be extended, or exchanged to get all functional dimensions according standard requirement

